

CSM Certified Scrum Master (Scrum Alliance)

COURSE OVERVIEW

NextUp's Certified ScrumMaster (CSM) class is an immersive two-day learning experience that provides students with a deep dive into Agile principles and the concepts and practices that define the Scrum framework. This highly interactive and collaborative class boosts students' confidence in Agile concepts and their ability to implement Scrum in their unique environments.

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM THIS COURSE?

CSM training is ideal for all members of the team including Product Owners, Scrum Masters, developers, testers, analysts, project managers, and more. This course is also great for anyone interested in Agile methodologies and process improvement across industries and practices.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Organized by a product backlog and completed through four half-day sprints, we use Scrum to teach Scrum in our CSM course. Sprint planning is used to identify the sprint goals and key learning modules for each sprint. The task board and burndown charts are used to create transparency and track progress to completion. Sprint reviews and retrospectives ensure students are engaged. Key topics include:

- Agile and Scrum fundamentals
- Iterative vs. incremental processes
- Scrum roles and how they interact within teams
- How to act as a servant leader and improve transparency
- Product backlog, refinement, and user stories
- Sprint planning and effective estimation
- The importance of events like the daily Scrum, sprint review, and retrospectives
