

Panorama: NGFW Management (NGFW)

COURSE OVERVIEW

The Palo Alto Networks Panorama: NGFW Management course is an instructor-led training that will help you to:

- Learn how to design, configure and manage the Panorama FireWall management server
- Gain experience in how to centrally manage policies using device groups
- Learn how to rollout network and device configuration to many FireWalls using templates and template variables
- Gain experience with administration, log collection, as well as logging and reporting
- Become familiar with planning and design considerations for Panorama deployment

This training is a specialized course for the Panorama management solution to centrally manage FireWalls at scale. It not only teaches the features and functionalities of Panorama but also provides guidance on how to design a distributed firewall network that is managed from a central location.

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM THIS COURSE?

- Security Architects
- Security Administrators
- Security Operations Specialists
- Security Analysts
- Security Engineers

PREREQUISITES

The “Firewall Configuration and Management” (EDU-210) course or equivalent practical experience working with the Palo Alto Networks Next-Generation FireWall is a recommended prerequisite to taking this Palo Alto panorama training. Students also should be familiar with basic security concepts. Familiarity with networking concepts, including routing, switching, and IP addressing, is recommended.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Let the Experience and Passion of our instructor guide you – Consigas is an Authorized Global Training Partner and was recognized with the “Excellence in Training Award” in 2022, 2019 and 2016 by Palo Alto Networks. The difference is made by our instructors, who have many years of field experience, which they bring with them into the classroom.

Our instructors are security consultants who design, implement, migrate, manage and support Palo Alto Networks solutions. It’s this experience that they bring into the classroom to explain not only the theory but also how to use Panorama in real life. Customers tell us that this is the most valuable thing for them and that this is what differentiates our Palo Alto “Panorama: NGFW Management” training from most other training partners.
